Services Offered: White Rose Ranch offers one-of-a-kind team building events where the horse does the teaching and facilitators offer explanations and provide guidance. Activities are designed for corporate, small business, or groups of all kinds to develop problem-solving skills that encourage individuals to work cohesively as a team for positive results. This unique style of horse/human interaction is an effective approach to team building and leadership development. Your organization will see results immediately because working with horses creates a lasting impression that helps participants remember the training far longer than just sitting in a classroom.
